CUMMINS & WEAREN, STANFORD.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON

HON. HARVEY HELM.

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

Not Mr. Carnegie and his millions in steel, but a woman with millions left her by her husband, heads the list of personal tax assessments made public in New York. She is Mrs. Emma B. Kennedy, widow of the late John S. Kennedy, who left $6,000,000 to charity when he died recently, and she must pay taxes on personal property valued at $6,000,000. Mr. Carnegie, who topped the list last year, tied this year for second place with Mrs. Russell Sage at $5,000,000. John D. Rockefeller comes third with personal property valued at $2,500,000, and in fourth place are Florence Amsinck, Bessie McLeod Leggett and W. K. Vanderbilt, each assessed for $1,000,000. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is listed for half a million. Col. John Jacob Astor and J. P. Morgan must pay on personal property assessed at $400,000 each. Charles M. Schwab is down for $250,000, Jacob H. Schiff for $200,000 and August Belmont and Thomas F. Ryan for $100,000 each.

A MOVEMENT that has assumed large proportions at Frankfort is the one which has for its purpose the appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 by the Legislature for a statue of Gov. William Goebel to be placed in the center of the rotunda of the new State Capitol building. It is argued that the handsome new pile is complete in every particular with the exception that a figure in bronze or marble would set off the rotunda, and nothing could be more fitting than thus to honor Kentucky's martyred Governor.

THE Kentucky Evening Gazette, of Lexington, which has been edited by Mr. W. P. Walton for some six months, is a thing of the past. It has not proved a money maker and the owners, a number of Fayette county democrats, decided to suspend its publication. Mr. Walton had no stock in it.

REPRESENTATIVE CREEKMORE, of the county of Whitley, will introduce a bill in the Legislature for the creation of another county to be formed from the "tail end" portions of Whitley, Pulaski and Wayne counties. Similar bills have been introduced at each Legislative session for years.

CARRYING an appropriation of $95,200,000 for the maintenance of the army for the fiscal year of 1911, the army appropriation bill passed the House by a vote of 183 to 106; present and not voting, 9. The opposition was due to the fact that the department estimates were exceeded.

A RELATED letter of sympathy was received by Mrs. John A. Johnson, widow of the former Governor of Minnesota, from former President Roosevelt. The letter was written with an indelible pencil and on an ordinary sheet of note paper and was dated November 15.

POLITICAL.

Mrs. Mary L. Tarter has been appointed postmaster at Gilpin, in Casey county.

Former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald won the mayoralty fight in Boston, defeating the so-called reform forces, led by James J. Storrow, by 1,123 votes.

Representative Townsend introduced in the House the bill embodying the recommendations outlined in the special message of President Taft for amendments to the interstate commerce law.

The power of the party caucus will be invoked in the House in the effort to suppress the revolt of the Insurgents. The leaders decided that whenever the insurgents as a body differ with the majority the caucus shall determine the party course.

George S. Wilson, speaker of the House, has announced the names of those composing his Rules Committee. They are as follows: George S. Wilson, ex-officio member and chairman; W. H. Shanks, Lincoln county; H. A. Schoeberth, Woodford county; W. F. Klair, Lexington; J. F. Porter, Webster county; S. M. Russell, Todd county; M. F. Pogue, Crittenden and Livingston counties; J. T. Buford, Frankfort; C. F. Creeluis, Pendleton county.

Twelve new offices were created in the Senate during the session Monday. Those appointed to places under the terms of the resolution creating the offices are: Oscar Vest, of Owen county, mail clerk; Miss Annie Nourse, Frankfort, copyist; Mrs. Ella Hutchison Ellwanger, Frankfort, copyist; Welsh Wilds, of Nicholasville, reader; Dave Haley, Owen county, assistant guard; Gaston Poole, Murray, stenographer; O. W. Faulkner, Lexington, clerk to committees; Wharton Renoke, Harrison county, special messenger; John Gaines, Frankfort, page for Lieut. Gov. Cox; Frank Chapman, Falmouth, bill clerk; B. J. Oliver, son of Senator Oliver, of Allen county, assistant door-keeper. None of these offices is to have attached a salary in excess of $5 a day.

T. A. Fields, of Ashland, will succeed Editor Sam Roberts as collector at Lexington.

Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, says the chances of the democrats carrying the next National House are brighter than at any time since 1892.

Herman D. Newcomb, of Louisville, has introduced a bill doing away with hangings. He would have criminals electrocuted in the Frankfort penitentiary.

Ludlow F. Petty, of Shelbyville, has been appointed to the collectorship of the Louisville district. A. L. Patrick was appointed U. S. Marshal for the Eastern Kentucky district.

A Frankfort dispatch says: The big rug for the reception room was received from Austria and placed upon the hardwood floor. The rug has a delicately tinted blue effect and is of the softest texture. It is 16x54 feet and cost $1,800. The rug is one of the very finest that can be woven by the skilled Austrian rugmakers, and matches well the other handsome furnishings of the Capitol.

A Washington special says: President Taft and Senator Bradley have a long conference over the Federal offices in Kentucky. The Senator called primarily to urge the appointment of Judge Cochran, of the Eastern district, to the Sixth circuit judgeship, but was informed by the President that he had already decided upon Judge Loyal E. Knappen, of Michigan, to preside over the Kentucky-Tennessee-Ohio-Michigan circuit.

HUSTONVILLE.

During the severe weather of the past week our live stock dealers have shipped only one car of hogs and butcher cattle at 7c and 3 to 4c respectively.

Work on the Lair building on Main street, is being pushed despite the unfavorable weather and the contractor hopes to have it ready for occupancy by Feb. 1st.

Just a few more samples of those bargain suits and overcoats. Have your measure taken before it is too late. Adams Bros., Hustonville.

The person who borrowed my husband's shot gun some time before his death will please return it to me at once. Mrs. T. J. Robinson, Hustonville.

Howard Camnitz is able to sit up after a week's illness of grip. Elwood Weatherford, who has been sick for a week, is better and returned to college Monday. C. L. Holmes, a veteran commercial pilgrim of Louisville, spent Sunday at Hotel Weatherford. No more reliable salesman ever carried a grip than Lou.

Our Graded School resumed work on Monday after a 10 days' holiday. Teachers and students agree that a little rest is good to renew the physical nature. All entered upon the new year's duties with renewed energy and a hearty enthusiasm. The students of last year were all present and in addition the following pupils have been enrolled: Julius McKinney, Robert Nunneley, Bowman Myers, Rose Dunn, Martha Tucker, Robbie Tucker, Jessie Riffe, Mamie McKinney and Dillia May Sutherland. An honor roll beginning Dec. 1 has been established, the requirements of which are that pupils whose daily average is 90 or over and who have not been absent or tardy during the month shall be placed on the roll and the same will be published. The honor roll for December is: Isa Floyd, Anna Floyd, Paul Willis, Dunn Sandidge, Mamie North, Roberta Blain, Marie Floyd, Kathryn McClure.

MATRIMONIAL.

Charles Robbins and Miss Mary Davis were made one at Jack Davis' on the 12th.

Dr. Henry L. Casey and Miss Nellie Fogarty were married at the Catholic church in Danville.

Miss Margaret Leavitt, daughter of a New York multi-millionaire, was married to her chauffeur.

Beardsley Wilhite sold a very fine horse to Dr. H. L. Casey. The animal was bought for the Mexican government. The price was $350.—Advocate.

Charles I. Stewart, formerly editor of the Lexington Gazette but now editing a paper at Enid, Okla., was married at Lexington to Miss Margaret O'Brien.

A marriage of the day was that of Miss Rose Loveman and Mr. H. G. Bridgewater, which was solemnized at the Jewish synagogue. The event will be of much interest to the friends of the young people throughout the city. The officiating divine was Rabbi Newfield, and there were no attendants. The event was most quiet, only relatives and intimate friends being present. The bride was gown in a traveling costume of blue, with which she wore hat, shoes and gloves to match. Immediately after the ceremony the young people left for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend some two weeks. Upon their return they will make their home at 1303 Indiana street. The bride is well-known in this city, while the groom is connected with the Frisco system.—Birmingham News.

Mr. Bridgewater is an old Lincoln county boy. He went from Moreland a few years ago and has had a number of promotions, the last being chief clerk to the master mechanic of the Frisco system.

TALK with me before buying a typewriter, and see sample at my home. T. A. Brackett, local agent for Standard Typewriter Exchange, New York.

THE Lincoln County Fair claims its old dates and a rousing exhibition may be expected here this year. Checks for the old stock will be sent out by Secretary James F. Cummins about Feb. 1.

MA's New Husband Co. gave a creditable performance to a small crowd at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night. The patronage was nothing like good as the show deserved. "The Dixie Girl Co." began a three-nights' engagement last night and the prospects for good crowds were flattering.

CARD OF THANKS.—We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many friends and relatives, also to our kind and sympathetic physicians for their goodness and kindness to us during the illness and death of our darling Stella. May our Heavenly Father's richest blessings ever be theirs. Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Butt and family.

"If the temperance people had spent the money they paid for speakers in the recent campaign for the prosecution and riddance of the blind tiger operators they would have won in the election held at Somerset, Dec. 7," said a citizen of that place to us the other day. Our local optionists might do well to ponder over this statement.

GOES TO STANFORD.—Mr. W. S. Fish, who has been engaged in business at Paint Lick for many years, has engaged in the insurance and real estate business at Stanford and will locate in that thriving city. Mr. Fish is a time citizen and has legions of friends here and at Paint Lick, who extend to him every good wish.—Richmond Cilmex.

In honor of Mrs. Birdie Brent, of North Salem, Ind., a most enjoyable social was given by Miss Lizzie Brent, of the East End. After playing many games and a good time generally to all, fruits were served. Some of those present were: Misses Lillie Garner, Nell Newland, Stella Newland, Garnett Scott, Jennie Rodgers, Messrs. O. Catron, Will Garner, Marshall Newland, Oscar Holtzelaw, James Howland, Robert Holtzelaw, Paul Newland, Clyde Curtis. A FRIEND.

WE failed to mention it at the time he was sworn in but J. N. Menefee, Jr., is now city judge, having succeeded Judge W. A. Tribble, who filled the office most creditably. Judge Menefee is well qualified for the office he holds, being a lawyer and a gentleman of good judgment. He has a splendid opportunity to help Stanford and we hope and believe he will do so. Many laws are daily broken here and if he will make it hot for the violators he will have done his full duty. In his effort to make Stanford a better town morally and otherwise, he has the support of all good people and his home paper.

"LITTLE GIANT" OF LINCOLN.—Jesse M. Alverson, assistant clerk of the Senate, left to-day for Louisville, where he will remain until Monday morning, when he will return to Frankfort in order that he may be on hand when the General Assembly is convened at noon. Mr. Alverson is known as "The Little Giant" of Lincoln county, for the reason that he has never been defeated for office. He has served two terms as a member of the lower House of the General Assembly, and this is his second term as assistant clerk of the Senate. He served as election commissioner for Lincoln county for two terms. As assistant clerk of the Senate, he is courteous and obliging. It was Mr. Alverson who, by changing his vote, finally broke the deadlock in the House over the location of the new capitol building. While a Representative he introduced several bills which are now on the statute books of Kentucky.—Courier-Journal.

Turkeys, a Good Investment.

"Bro. Noel, you remember the 50 cents you gave me about three years ago? Well, I bought me some turkey eggs with it and I raised four turkeys that year. The next year I raised 24. They brought me $45 and this year I sent 18 to the market, and they brought me $40, and I still have five turkeys left," is an extract from a letter from a little friend, Miss Georgia Deltz, who was 11 years old when she invested her 50 cents. Pretty good. Who can beat it? She is not only a good turkey raiser, but a faithful worker in her Sunday-school, and has just received the first prize—a handsome $2.50 Bible—for efficiency. She was baptized at 12 years of age. Her future is bright, and her example, both at home and in the church, worthy of emulation. Former pastor and friend, R. K. NOEL.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The repairs on the Methodist church are approaching completion and the committee feels confident that it will be ready for occupancy by Sunday, Jan. 30th.

Accidentally discharging a shot gun the little nephew of Garland Britt probably fatally wounded Britt. The two were hunting. Britt is prominent in Barren county, where the accident occurred.

George Ginnes, 22 years old, was nearly frozen to death when rescued by L. T. Rogers, near the latter's home, near Frankfort.

Gen. Rufus N. Rhodes, president and editor of the Birmingham News and a director of the Associated Press, is dead.

By a viva voce vote the House passed the Bennett-Sabath "white slave" bill.

Frank Kirby, 99 years old, died at his home, near Bowling Green.

sold on the Lexington breaks last week.
About 12,500,000 pounds have been sold
there this season. The average price room dwelling, two good stock barns,

new tobacco barn, 36x96, ice house,
buggy house, two corn cribs, etc., two

"I know the mule is much maligned
by many who talk and write about him,
but there is no animal that is easier to handle if treated kindly," says Mr. W.
D. Neale in Farm and Fireside; continuing: "Not long ago I was talking to a successful grower of mules, who said that he would rather break a team of mules than a team of horses, the mules
being not nearly so nervous and stealer goers. Kindness is his policy in dealing with them. There is no doubt that the mule is as susceptible to decent treatment as any other animal,
and it is not necessary for a man to be armed with a club when driving a span of mules. I have seen mules, whose dispositions had not been warped by brutal treatment, so dependable that the owner was able to drop the lines at any time and do whatever work he had in hand without fear of their running or raising a disturbance. So I take off my hat to the mule whether he be from Missouri or any other State in the Union, for he is the farmer's friend, his burden-bearer and a money-maker
wherever you put him."

night.

Emmet Proctor, of Stanford, is an attentive listener; also J. W. Hall, the piano tuner, is here this week. Melvin Owens, of the Quall section, is in the telephone exchange here this week.

The debate at this place between the Church of Christ and the Mormon people, is now at its highest pitch. This week the Mormon is on the affirmative side. Each man claims the victory so far and when the affair is ended next Saturday night, each man will walk off with laurels and those who have been so attentive will be none the wiser.

By the end of the brief minute taken to read these lines the nations of the civilized world will have struck 3,000,- 000 matches. This is the average for every minute of the 24 hours of the day. Seven billions is the number for each year, and those living under the American flag are said to be responsible for the consumption of one half of this amount.

A pension of $5,000 a year is due Mrs.
Grover Cleveland, according to precedents, and Senator Root has presented

The amount is the same as was allowed to Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. Garfield, Mrs.
Polk and Mrs. Tyler, widowed wives of former presidents.

charging the woman with his murder.

Harold Swift, of Swift & Co., says:
"Prices of meats are very high now,
but there is every indication that they will go still higher. This is attributable to the high prices of corn and the consequent scarcity of live stock. As long as the scarcity continues it is well
to educate the people to use the cheaper cuts of meat. These cuts are just as good and more wholesome if properly cooked."

The Tobacco Tiller.

One of the most interesting pieces of fiction of recent date is the "Tobacco Tiller," by Miss Sarah Bell Hackley, from the press of the C. M. Clark Publishing Company, of Boston, and especially for Kentuckians, as the scenes are all laid in Kentucky, and the characters all Kentuckians. Owensboro plays its part in the book, therefore unusually interesting to Daviess county people.
It deals with the simple country folk of the tobacco belt, and throughout the story is woven a romance that intensifies the interest of the reader. It touches on the night rider troubles, especially in the purchase, and while the book is a strong plea in behalf of the tobacco growers and their organization for receiving better prices for the products of their toil, it does not in any sense whatever, endorse the lawless
methods of the night riders.—Owensboro Inquirer. The authoress is the brilliant and popular daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. J. T. Hackley, of this county.
